

Smt. S. P. Kothari college of Secondary Education

“A good teacher is thousand times better than a priest and a good Educational Institution is million times better than a worship place” - (By Dr. Radha Krishnan)

“You must be the change you want to see in the world.” – Mahatma Gandhi

National Service Scheme popularly known as NSS, the scheme was launched in Gandhi Centenary year, 1969 and aimed at developing student’s personality through community service. The overall objective of National Service is Educational. This objective is attained through the service to the community.

“Winners don’t do different things; they do things differently” – Shiv Khera

Regular Activities held during the Year 2019-2020

INTERNATIONAL YOGA DAY

All the VidyaMandirtrust managed B.Ed Colleges celebrated International Yoga Day at Babbuben Mehta Hall on 21st June 2019, Thursday. Program started at 7:10 a.m. and ended at 8:10 a.m. It was a convergence of 4 days yoga practice series conducted from 18th June to 21st June under the guidance of Yoga Instructor Mr. ArvindChaudhary. He listed importance of mind, body and soul nourishment through yoga. Various Asaanas like Makrasana, Pavanmuktasana, Tadasana, Vrikshasna etc. were performed and its uses were told to all. All the students and staff members took part in this celebration and practiced yoga. The yoga styles created a feeling of lightness, ease and relaxation in the participants.

“Education is not the filling of a pail, but the lighting of a fire.” — W.B. Yeats

Tree Plantation

Trees play the vital role in the life of human being. They are responsible for maintaining the environment clean and pure. The effect of global warming is decreased by growing more trees. So tree plantation program was held under JalSanrakshanAbhiyan in Smt. S. P. Kothari college of Secondary Education on 5th August 2019. The very first sapling was planted by Dr. Neelu Ghosh, Principal of Shri D. D. Choksi College of Secondary Education. All other trees were planted by other professors and students. The students were also instructed to take care of the plants which they planted.

“Develop a passion for learning. If you do, you will never cease to grow” – Anthony J. D’Angelo

Oath Taking Ceremony

To develop leadership and management skills in student-teacher, Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College organized an Oath Taking Ceremony on 3rd August 2019 in college premises in the presence of the Respected Principal Dr. NeeluGhosh and the professors as election commission. First of all the election for G.S. (General Secretary) and L.R. (Ladies representative) was held. Yogesh Parikh and JhinkalChauhan has been elected as G.S. and L. R. respectively. The election was followed by Oath Taking ceremony administered by Dr. NeeluGhosh, Principal of D.D. Choksi College of Secondary Education, Mrs. ArpanaTripathi and faculty members. The representatives and members of different committees took oath to do all their work very honestly, faithfully and with integrity.

“Education is not preparation for life; education is life itself” – John Dewey

One Day Picnic

On 20/08/2019, NSS unit of Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College held one day picnic with great enthusiasm and merriment at Paniyari. The students explored the alluring beauty and bounties of nature. A delicious breakfast was served by the students. After that the students of the college arranged games based on introduction party like “Ice Breaking Session” and “One Minute Show”. All the students shared their personal information about each other and thereby get to know each other better and also had fun. A very tasty and delicious lunch was served by the students. After finishing the lunch all the students and teachers went to a hall. All the NSS volunteers and the faculty members started Garba and danced on the floor with great energy. Even the teachers could not resist the luring temptation of the dance floor. Now there was the most awaited time for the group photograph. All the students were very excited for the group photograph. It was a wonderful opportunity for all the student-teachers to strengthen their bonds and everyone came back to the college rejuvenated. Approximately at 5:00 o'clock we reached to college back.

“Knowledge is power. Information is liberating. Education is the premise of progress, in every society, in every family” – Kofi Annan

Rakhi Making Competition

'Rakshabandhan' is a special occasion to celebrate the virtuous bond of love between a brother and a sister which is one of the deepest and noblest of all human emotions. NSS unit of Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College organized Rakhi Making Competition on 13th August 2019 to celebrate Rakshabandhan. Volunteers made very beautiful Rakhis using different materials and concepts in such a way that it really became difficult for the judges to select the winners. The Guest of the day Mrs. Vandana Bhargav, Principal, Shree C. K. Mehta College of Primary Education was impressed and appreciated the creativity of students. There were two groups who made the best Rakhis. The first winner group was Agharia Sahim, Fateh Kasim Abbas, Rana Dipen, Parikh Yogesh and Suthar Vipul. The second winner group was Parmar Divya and Thakor Bharti.

“A person who won’t read has no advantage over one who can’t read” – Mark Twain

Independence Day and Rakhi Celebration

NSS volunteers of Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College celebrated Independence Day of India in VadilVishrantiGruh with patriotism. This auspicious day was celebrated along with Rakshabandhan celebration. Rakhi festival is not a ritual custom and tradition that can change over time but its style of celebration has become contemporary. Students knot the beautiful handmade Rakhis to the senior citizens and got their blessings. Mr. Chandrakant Joshi, the manager of VadilVishrantiGruh told in brief about the old age home. Students learnt more about to life sharing and caring. The senior citizens were very lonely and carving for love and affections. Students spoke to them, shared love and sang songs for them. The senior citizens shared their sadness and personal stories with us. NSS volunteer greeted the senior citizens with her auspicious speech. Senior Citizens shared their valuable experiences with trainees. The program concluded with vote of thanks by Mrs. ArpanaTripathi, Incharge Principal of Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College. All the student-teachers left with a heavy heart from there.

“Education is a better safeguard of liberty than a standing army” – Edward Everett

Gandhi Vichar Quiz Competition

On 31st August 2019, Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College arranged a quiz competition and the subject is "The thoughts of Gandhiji". In this quiz basic questions about Gandhiji and his life and the questions about very inspiring thoughts of him were asked. The questions were open for all the students. The rule was the student who will give the answer will be having a point. Negative points were not there. Mrs. Hetal Desai and Mrs. SaguftaMukhi were the anchors of the quiz. The students gave the answers very quickly. After completion of quiz competition, the result was announced. Students got a very useful knowledge from the questions.

“The eye you see the world, this is the way you will see all around the world”-
SandeepMaheshwari

Cleanliness Awareness Program

Cleanliness is next to godliness. We know a journey of million miles starts with a single step. With this note the NSS unit of Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College realized it to be their responsibility towards the mother earth and took a small initiative by organizing a cleanliness program on 14.9.19 in the premises of Vidyamandir Trust, Palanpur. It was their first step to make a cleaner India with a motto of “Plastic Free India”. All the student-teachers and the faculty members cleaned the Vidyamandir Campus and outside the campus. Then the whole plastic waste was collected. This campaign was completed under the guidance of Ms. Arpana Tripathi the N.S.S. program officers of the college.

“To succeed in your mission, you must have single-minded devotion to your goal” - Abdul Kalam

NSS Day celebration:

Objective of this Program: To inculcate the sense of responsiveness and belongingness in the minds of the students towards serving the needs of our society.

On 24th September 2019, NSS unit of D. D.Choksi College of Secondary Education, organized a series of events for the enthusiastic students to come forward and contribute for a well-being. Chart making Competition the motive behind organizing the event is to teach skills of chart making to Teacher's trainee who will make their teaching more strong and student centered. The students made many 3D charts on various topics like education, teaching subjects, motivational etc. All the charts were interactive and various new styles were incorporated in its design using crafty methods. Some charts were so mesmeric that they easily caught attention during display. The day concluded with prize distribution to winners. The students also sang songs of NSS. The videos on different social issues were screened on this day.

“Failure comes only when we forget our ideals and objectives and principles” - Jawaharlal Nehru

Unveiling of Gandhiji statue"

To commemorate the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhiji on October 2, 2019, the Vidyamandir Trust Palanpur (VMT) and D.D.Choksi College with their NSS unit inaugurated a large, life-size statue of the Mahatma, the first ever to be built in the city of Palanpur. The unveiling was done by differently-abled children of MamtaMandir in presence of over 2,000 people.

Garba Celebration

In Gujarat, Navratri is a community event, where people perform Garbas on devotional songs that are popular by the names of 'DandiyaRaas' and 'GarbaRaas'. As a part of this, Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College organized 'Garba Celebration' on 11th October 2019 in college premises. The celebration began with the MahaAarti of Goddess Navdurga in the presence of Dr. Leena Mehta, the trusty of Vidyamandir Trust, Dr. HasmukhModi, the trusty of Vidyamandir Trust, all the staff members and the students..The event was well attended by all the students and faculty members in traditional grooming. All of them celebrated the day with joy and cheer. It was a colorful event with teachers joining the students enthusiastically in their dance. The positivity and energy exuberating out of the colorful costumes combined with the enthusiasm of dancing to the garba made the entire day extremely successful and fruitful. The event became more graceful by the presence of Dr. Leena Mehta as she joined us in the celebration. The program ended with the mouth watering Gulab-Jamun and Pav-Bhaji. It was a memorable day for all of us.

“We are what our thoughts have made us; so take care about what you think. Words are secondary. Thoughts live; they travel far.” – Swami Vivekananda

Women Empowerment

Women empowerment is the process in which women elaborate and recreate what it is that they can be, do and accomplish in a circumstance that they were previously denied. Regarding the rights of women, the teacher-trainees (NSS unit) of Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College collected the information about “Women Empowerment”. They have represented the information in the form of attractive scrap books, knowledgeable charts, quotations and power point presentations. The student-teachers collected this information from internet and by visiting different organizations and NGO’s which are run for women empowerment. The student-teachers also explained about the rights and sections for women which are given in our constitution.

“Knowledge is power. Information is liberating. Education is the premise of progress, in every society, in every family” – Kofi Annan

AIDS Day Celebration

International AIDS Day is celebrated on 1st December all over the world. The full form of AIDS is Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome. AIDS is basically spread by HIV (Human Immunodeficiency Virus). International AIDS day was celebrated in Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College. The group of 30 students acted the important role to make the other students aware about how HIV spreads. They also talked about the causes and symptoms of AIDS along with the preventive measures. The students explained how the killer virus plays havoc with the immune system and takes the patients to the threshold of death. They also urged that patients suffering from the disease must not be victimised and discriminated against in the society. Students represented all the information in the form of charts, posters, banners, PowerPoint presentations, etc.

“Education is a better safeguard of liberty than a standing army” – Edward Everett

Luv Kush Fun-Fair

With the motive to develop managerial and organizing skills in teachers trainees, Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College organized a Luv-Kush fun-fair on 2nd December 2019. The theme for the fun-fair was “Go Green” as it is the present need of the time to make students aware of the importance of plants on the planet. The fun-fair was inaugurated by the director of Vidyamandirtrust , Mr. HasmukhModi by flying the pigeons and bursting balloons full of seeds. The main attraction of the fair was an academic stall named “Man kibaatapnokesaath”, in which the student-teachers enfolded the hidden talents of the students. There were total 39 stalls of mouth watering and delicious food items like Panipuri, Dabeli, Sevपुरi, Popcorn, Cotton Candy, Pastry, Lemon Juice, etc. There were other 4 stalls which were leading different clubs of the college which were NSS, Consumer, Go Green and academic. Besides food stalls many exciting games stalls were there like blind hit, luck by chance, swimming coin. Mehandi, Nail-art, Tattoo making were the attraction of the fair. The students enjoyed the DJ stall and selfie zone. The teachers and students enjoyed the fair a lot. It was a very good experience for the student-teachers.

“Education is not preparation for life; education is life itself” – John Dewey

Birth Anniversary of Swami Vivekanand

The 157th birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda was celebrated by the student-teachers of Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College on 13th January 2020 with enthusiasm. “You have to grow from the inside out. None can teach you, none can make you spiritual. There is no other teacher but your own soul.” This inspirational message was given by Swami Vivekananda for each individual that nobody knows you better than yourself; you are your best teacher. Regarding these quotes, our student-teachers Himanee Joshi, Jignasha Karnavat and Harshad Parmar delivered a very good speech about the life of Swami Vivekananda and what we can learn from that. In the end, student teacher gave the knowledge about some incidents of the life of Swami Vivekananda and inspired the student-teachers to apply the virtuous of Swamiji in their life.

“Education must not simply teach work – it must teach Life. “ – W. E. B. Du Bois

Birth Anniversary Celebration of Subhash Chandra Bose

These were not ordinary words but these were words that energized an entire nation! With the call of “Give me your blood and I will give you freedom” one man challenged the might of an empire and inspired a nation to join hands to free itself from the shackles of Imperialism. This man was none other than Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose, to whom we pay our richest tributes on his birth anniversary. To tribute this iconic freedom fighter, the student-teachers of DD Choksi College of Secondary Education celebrated the birth anniversary of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose on 23rd January 2020. Pravin Chauhan and Kuldeep Chaudhary, the students of D. D. Choksi College of Secondary Education delivered a very good speech about the life of Subhash Chandra Bose. Dipak Suthar, the student-teacher showed the video about the history of Subhash Chandra Bose. In the end, Dr. Neelu Ghosh, the principal of D. D. Choksi college of Secondary Education gave the power point presentation about some quotes of Subhash Chandra Bose and also inspired students to follow his ethics.

“A good education is a foundation for a better future.” – Elizabeth Warren

Gandhi NirvanDiwas

Mahatma Gandhi was assassinated on 30th January 1948 by Nathuram Godse, sending an entire nation into grief. The country remembers 'bapu' on his death anniversary. This day is also known as Gandhi NirvanDiwas. On this day Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College gave tribute to Gandhiji. The event began with the most popular Bhajan by Mahatma Gandhi, “Vaishnav Jan ToTeneKahiye”. The program was continued with the speech about the implementation of the thoughts of Gandhiji in our life by Dipak Suthar, the student-teacher of Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. Maitree Prajapati delivered Gandhiji’s thought through effective power point presentation. At last the student-teachers gave homage to Gandhiji with 2 minutes silence. The program was concluded by National Anthem.

“We are what our thoughts have made us; so take care about what you think. Words are secondary. Thoughts live; they travel far.” – Swami Vivekananda

Sports Day

The much awaited Sports Day was held on 30th January 2020, with great zeal, excitement and frolicsome atmosphere in Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College. A great interest was observed among the student-teachers and the professors. The students entered into the spirit of the occasion in a grand way with the oath being administered by I/C principal of Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College, the GS and LR of the college and the sports committee incharges of the college. This was entailed by the races wherein the participants participated with full verve and vigour. It was a delight to see the excitement with which the students challenged themselves to attempt a variety of races such as sack race, Jalebi Race, 100 Meter Race, Relay Race, etc. The other fun-filled games were also organized like discuss throw, Javelin throw, Tug of war, kho-kho, etc. The principal mam were highly pleased at the performance of student-teachers. The student-teachers enjoyed the delicious Gulab-Jamun and ChholePuri.

“Arise, awake and Stop not until the goal is reached.” – Swami Vivekananda.

World Cancer Day

World Cancer Day is the one singular initiative under which the entire world can unite together in the fight against the global cancer epidemic. It takes place every year on 4 February. World Cancer Day aims to save millions of preventable deaths each year by raising awareness and education about cancer, and pressing governments and individuals across the world to take action against the disease. With this concern the student-teachers of Smt. S. P. Kothari College of Secondary Education, celebrated World Cancer Day on 4th February 2020. Dr. Himanshu Acharya, an assistant professor explained the student-teachers about the causes of cancer. He also explained about the insurance policies which are very much helpful for cancer patient.

“You must be the change you want to see in the world.” – Mahatma Gandhi.

Inaugural Function of She Bank

An inaugural function of She Bank (Under N.S.S. Project – Health & Hygiene) in association with Anaadih was held in Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College on 13th February 2020. This project is under taken by N.S.S. The guests were welcomed by our Indian custom “Tilak”. The program was started with “Namokar Mantra”. The function was commenced with the lighting of lamp by a group of dignitaries – Dr. H. K. Shah (Gynaecologist), Ms. Sandhya Saxena (M.D. of Anaadih Foundation), Dr. Mehtab Suthar (Gynaecologist), Dr. Neelu Ghosh (Principal of D. D. Choksi College of Secondary Education), Mrs. Surekha Shah (Inner Wheel Member), Mrs. Meenu Maheshwari (Inner wheel member) and the faculty members and other sponsors. The welcome speech was given by Mrs. Arpana Tripathi (N.S.S. co-ordinator). The introduction of guests was given by Dr. Neelu Ghosh by highlighting the qualities of guests. Then the guests were welcomed by giving Plants & Pots, Shawl and memento as gift. Dr. Mehtab Suthar has told few lines about the program. Mrs. Sandhya gave the information about mis-beliefs of menstrual cycle. She recited a beautiful poem about menses. The program was further continued by the informative lecture of Dr. H. K. Shah about the process of menstrual cycle and the problems girls face during their first menses period. The students gave the feedback about the program. The program was concluded by the vote of thanks by Mrs. Shagufta Mukhi (Project co-coordinator). We have 47 beneficiaries including the girls of our college and of Parpada Primary School along with this project. Finally the sanitary pads were distributed to the beneficiaries.

“To succeed in your mission, you must have single-minded devotion to your goal.” – Abdul Kalam.

Extension Lecture on 5 E's Model of Constructivist Approach

An Extension Lecture was conducted on 14th February 2020 in Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College on the topic “5 E's Model of Constructivist Approach”. The resource person of the lecture was Dr. Jayendra Amin who is an Associate Professor in School of Education at Central University, Gandhinagar. He is one of the most respected and renowned figure in the fields of Education and Research in Gujarat and India. The lecture was very educative. Dr. Jayendra Amin has explained the student teachers about the 5 E's – Engage, Explore, Explain, Elaborate and Evaluate very descriptively with examples. He explained about the importance of 5 E's Model in teaching learning process. He also compared the traditional method of teaching and the advanced method using 5 E's Model. Some online links were also given by him to learn the 5 E's Model in more detail. Lastly he showed the video of the practical implementation of 5 E's model. At the end of the lecture he resolved the queries of the students. The event was ended by vote of thanks given by Komal Prajapati.

“No religion has mandated killing others as a requirement for its sustenance or promotion.” – Dr.A.P.J.AbdulKalam

Inaugural Function of NSS Camp held at Parpada

Inaugural Ceremony of NSS Camp was organized on 28/02/2020 for session 2018-20 at Parpada Village by the NSS student volunteers of Vidyamandir Trust Managed Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College. National Award Winner of NSS, 'ShriHarchandbhaiChauhan' was the chief guest of the programme and Director of Vidyamandir Trust Dr. HasmukhModi was the chair person of the day. Other Dignitaries present Dr. J. D. Damor, Programme Coordinator, NSS Unit, HNGU, Patan, ShriPrabhudas Patel, Duke Plasto Private Limited. Principal of the Primary School, Parpada, Chetna Ben Parmar, SMC Members, Sarpanch and eminent personalities of village. Principal of the College Dr. NeeluGhosh welcomed the guests and explained about the aims and objectives of NSS, inspiring the students by her beautiful poem. ProgrammeOfficers- Dr. Bharat. P. Mali and Mrs. ArpanaTripathi deliberately planned for next seven days, by inviting resources persons from different fields, making each day theme based. Dhawal Patel-GS, gave the detail information. Along with inauguration, National science day was the limelight of the programme, in which student teachers have prepared solar lamps and gifted to the school. Farmers took great interest when, KomalPrjapati showed the live demonstration of Azolla plant. The program ended with the awareness rally and lunch.

“Education is the manifestation of perfection already in a man.” – Swami Vivekananda

NSS Camp – Day 2

The second day began with the morning assembly. With the theme of Health Awareness, HiralThakar and Swati Nanda, the student-teachers of Smt. S. P. Kothari English Medium B.Ed. College taught the students of the school and the teacher-trainees about how to do Yoga along with Dr. NeeluGhosh, the principal of D. D. Choksi College of Secondary Education and all the staff members. The session was continued with the other activity, “Best out of Waste” by Mr. MukeshVaghela, the teacher of Saint Paul’s School, Palanpur. He taught the students to prepare different types of articles from the waste papers of our house. The school students also made very good articles.

“The world is not impermanent if one lives there after knowing God.” – Sri Ramakrishna Paramahansa

NSS Camp – Day 3

The third day of NSS Camp Program was started with “Plantation Program”. The student teachers have been planted the saplings near the school. The student-teachers were feeling very happy by doing this great work. The day was continued with hanging the bird houses and water pots for the birds. The bird houses were made by the student-teachers. The bird houses were fixed in the school premises, the nearby temple and in different houses of the village.

The Best way to predict your Future is to create it. Abraham Lincoln

NSS Camp – Day 4

The fourth day of NSS Camp Program began with the morning assembly. The program continued with the lecture of Mrs. Purnima Mehta, Secretary of BanaskanthaGrahakSurakshaShikshananeSanshodhanmandal, Palanpur. She explained about the consumer, the celebration of the consumer day. The lecture was continued with the explanation about the rights and duties of a consumer very deeply. In the next session, Dr. MehtabSuthar, a gynaecologist from Palanpur came with a beautiful lecture of “Health & Hygiene” for girls. She explained about the problems of woman’s health and its solution.

“In order to be a successful person one must become a succeeding person. A succeeding person is a person who is pursuing”.

NSS Camp – Day 5

The fifth day of NSS camp program was started with the lecture of Mr. ArvindBhaiChaudhary, NCC co-ordinator, Vidyamandir Trust, Palanpur. He explained about NCC (National Cadet Corps). He explained about the importance of NCC and how we can enroll in NCC. The second session began with the speech of Mr. IrfanBaloch, the scout ant leader of Vidyamandir Trust, Palanpur. He explained the student teachers about Scout and Guide. He taught different types of scout claps and when and where they are used. The student teachers enjoyed his lecture very much. The day was continued with the chart making competition of student teachers. The student teachers have made very beautiful 3-D and 4-D charts.

Education is not the answer to the question. Education is the means to the answer to all questions. VivekBindra

NSS Camp – Day 6

The sixth day of NSS camp program was started with the lecture of Dr. Manisha Shinde, an Assistant Professor at Sardar Krushi University, Dantiwada. The lecture was about “Mushroom Cultivation”. She explained about what a mushroom is, the nutritive values of mushroom and the benefits of eating mushrooms. She also gave the practical demonstration of how to grow mushrooms at home. Then the Booth Level Officer Mrs. Sarojben J. Kadiya gave information about the voter awareness and the eligibility criteria for giving the vote. The day was continued with the informative speech of Mr. Rameshbhai Asot, an educationist of Parpada village. He gave the information about “Water Preservation Mission” and how they applied it in their village. The teacher trainees made a mouth watering food on their own. After lunch, the closing ceremony of NSS camp began with the cultural program. The teacher trainees of both the colleges performed a mime on the theme “Atulya Bharat”. The students of Parpada School also performed different dances.

“Winners see the gain, losers see the pain”. Shiv Khera

NSS Camp – Day 7

The seventh day was the last day of the NSS Camp Program. A drawing competition and essay writing competition on “BetiBachao” was organized for the students of Parpada School. Students drew very good pictures. The essays of the students were also very good. Then the students were appreciated with the gifts. Talks were organized for the Volunteers on different topics such as Consumer Awareness, Anti-superstition and moral values, Social networking- Boon or Bane and NSS objectives. The purpose of the camp was to inculcate various values such as social, cultural, moral, educational and ethical.

CONCLUSION CEREMONY OF THE CAMP The camp was concluded on 5th March 2020. A welcome speech was delivered by Yogesh parkh, NSS student secretary. NSS volunteers were felicitated and prizes were given for winners of Poster competition on Road Safety. Village Sarpanch had enlightened the students about the various functionalities of the village Panchayat, various health and agricultural practices. He expressed his deep feelings about the importance of basic knowledge of healthy habits and practices. Volunteers have given their feedback on what they have learned in the special camp. And during learning process in what way they made the people aware of many health issues like non-communicable diseases, environmental sanitation, immunization, road safety, female feticide and personal hygiene. Vote of thank was given by Ms.Jhinkal Chauha. NSS deputy student secretary.

In conclusion, NSS unit of Smt. S. P. Kothari College of Secondary Education would like to thank our respected Principal for valuable support and guidance without which many of our activities would not have been achieved. And would also like to thank faculty members for their support and co-operation.

Program Officer

Ms. Arpana Tripathi

Smt. S. P. Kothari College of Secondary Education

“In order to be a successful person one must become a succeeding person. A succeeding person is a person who is pursuing”.