Women's Day Celebration

International Women's Day was celebrated on March 8, 2023, at our college. This day is observed globally to acknowledge the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women, as well as to raise awareness about women's rights and gender equality.

The International Women's Day celebration at our college was organized by the students, with assistance from faculty members. Miral eloquently presented a poem centered on women's empowerment, while Dilshad delivered a captivating musical performance. Additionally, Jigar and Jagdish hosted a quiz competition focusing on women's rights and their significance in society. The program commenced at 10:00 am and concluded at 3:00 pm.

Later in the day, a cultural program unfolded, featuring dance, music, and drama performances by students. These performances served as a platform to showcase the diverse talents of female students across various artistic expressions.

World Consumer Day (15/3/2023)

World Consumer Day was celebrated on March 15th in our college. It was an awareness-raising event organized by consumer organizations around the world to promote consumer rights and advocate for better consumer protection laws and policies. The day was first observed on March 15, 1962, and has been celebrated every year since then. The theme for World Consumer Day changes each year, focusing on different aspects of consumer protection. Some past themes have included "Consumer Justice Now," "Making Digital Marketplaces Fairer," and "Trusted Smart Products."

Our Principal gave a short speech and welcomed the chief guest. After that, the Chief Guest effectively raised awareness about customer rights. Some of us asked questions when we were confused, and she explained them very well.

We became more aware as customers after that seminar. I was also thankful to our Principal and faculty members for organizing this program.

Farewell to seniors (28/3/2023)

A farewell to seniors is a special event organized to bid farewell to students leaving college. This event is a significant moment for both the departing seniors and the juniors staying back, marking the end of a chapter and the beginning of a new one. The purpose of a farewell event is to express gratitude towards the seniors for their contribution to the college, wish them luck in their future endeavors, and provide them with a memorable send-off. It is an opportunity for juniors to show their appreciation and respect towards their seniors and learn from their experiences.
